43. Each and every one of NetRatings' allegations and claims for relief fails to state a claim against Coremetrics for which relief may be granted.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Invalidity Under 35 U.S.C. § 102)

44. Coremetrics incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 43 in their entirety.

45. On information and belief, the patents asserted in the Amended Complaint (collectively, the "patents-in-suit") and each of the claims allegedly infringed by Coremetrics are invalid for failure to comply with one or more of the conditions for patentability set forth in 35 U.S.C. § 102.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Invalidity Under 35 U.S.C. § 103)

46. Coremetrics incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 45 in their entirety.

47. On information and belief, the patents-in-suit and each of the claims allegedly infringed by Coremetrics are invalid for failure to comply with one or more of the conditions for patentability set forth in 35 U.S.C. § 103.

SIXTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Laches Under 35 U.S.C. § 286)

53. Coremetrics incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 52 in their entirety.
54. NetRatings is barred under 35 U.S.C. § 286 from recovering damages for any alleged infringement occurring more than six years prior to the filing of this suit.

SEVENTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Laches And Equitable Estoppel)

55. Coremetrics incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 54 in their entirety.
56. Although Coremetrics has been openly selling its products for several years, NetRatings and its alleged predecessors-in-interest unreasonably delayed in asserting infringement. This delay has resulted in material prejudice to Coremetrics. NetRatings' claims are barred by the equitable doctrine of laches.

57. The decision by NetRatings and its alleged predecessors-in-interest not to assert the patents-in-suit against Coremetrics until the filing of this suit led Coremetrics reasonably to infer that NetRatings did not intend to enforce any patents against Coremetrics. Coremetrics accordingly continued to openly sell its products. Coremetrics would be materially prejudiced if NetRatings is allowed to proceed with an infringement suit. NetRatings' claims are barred by the equitable doctrine of equitable estoppel.

EIGHTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

58. Coremetrics incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 57 in their entirety.

59. NetRatings is estopped, by virtue of proceedings in the United States Patent and Trademark Office during prosecution of the applications leading to the patents-in-suit, from advocating a construction of any claims of the patents-in-suit so as to cover, literally or under the Doctrine of Equivalents, any Coremetrics product or process.

NINTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

(Ownership)

60. Coremetrics incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 59 in their entirety.

61. NetRatings is not the assignee on the face of the '386, '510, '637, '680, or '155 patents and has not attached any exhibits to its Amended Complaint establishing ownership of these patents. On information and belief, NetRatings does not have the right to enforce the '386, '510, '637, '680, or '155 patents.

Coremetrics reserves the right to amend its answer to assert further defenses based on future discovery in the lawsuit.

67. NetRatings has alleged that it owns the patents-in-suit, including the right to sue for past infringement.

68. An actual and justiciable controversy has arisen and presently exists between the parties for which Coremetrics desires a declaration of rights pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2201(a) and Rule 57 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, inasmuch as NetRatings has alleged that Coremetrics is infringing the patents-in-suit, Coremetrics denies this allegation, and Coremetrics alleges that it in fact does not infringe any claim of the patents-in-suit and that the claims it is accused of infringing are invalid.

FIRST COUNTERCLAIM

(Declaratory Judgment of Non-Infringement)

69. Coremetrics incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 68 in their entirety.

71. Coremetrics is not contributorily infringing or inducing infringement of any claim of any of the patents-in-suit, nor has it previously so contributorily infringed or induced infringement of any claim of any of the patents-in-suit.

72. Coremetrics further seeks a judgment declaring, under the Patent Laws of the United States, that Coremetrics has not previously infringed the patents-in-suit literally, under the Doctrine of Equivalents, or contributorily, and that it has not previously induced such infringement.

SECOND COUNTERCLAIM

(Declaratory Judgment of Invalidity)

73. Coremetrics incorporates by reference Paragraphs 1 through 72 in their entirety.

74. The patents-in-suit and the claims that Coremetrics is accused of infringing are invalid for failure to comply with one or more of the conditions for patentability set forth in 35 U.S.C. § 102.

75. The patents-in-suit and the claims that Coremetrics is accused of infringing are invalid for failure to comply with one or more of the conditions for patentability set forth in 35 U.S.C. § 103.

76. The patents-in-suit and the claims that Coremetrics is accused of infringing are invalid for failure to comply with one or more of the requirements set forth in 35 U.S.C. § 112.

77. Coremetrics therefore seeks a judgment declaring, under the Patent Laws of the United States, that the patents-in-suit and the claims that Coremetrics is accused of infringing are invalid.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Coremetrics respectfully requests the following relief:

- A. That judgment on NetRatings' Amended Complaint be entered in favor of Coremetrics, and against NetRatings, and that NetRatings not be awarded any relief in connection therewith;
- B. That Coremetrics be declared not to have infringed any of the patents-in-suit;
- C. That Coremetrics be declared not to have willfully infringed any of the patents-in-suit;

- D. That each of the patents-in-suit be declared to be invalid;
